

THE SCOTTISH GAELIC TEACHING FUND

You can make a gift and help us to continue and expand our teaching program.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

The successful inauguration of the Sir Warwick Fairfax Chair of Celtic Studies at the University of Sydney is unique to the Southern Hemisphere.

We are happy to announce an expansion of the Chair into a second term in 2014.

Academic studies will enlarge in range under the leadership of incoming Professor Jonathan Wooding who specialises in Celtic medieval history and early Celtic religion and saints. The Chair will continue to offer Celtic languages and cultural studies to scholars, as well as international conferences and academic publications, in addition to study days and lectures for the general public.

Your support is vital to our ongoing needs.

All donations, which are of course tax deductible, help us to continue and expand our teaching program. Possible bequests will contribute to making this important cultural heritage for Australia into a permanent Chair.
